Thurs., Sept. 3
Josh Turner

Multi-platinum recording artist Josh Turner, is one of country music's most recognizable hit-makers. With a rich, deep voice and distinctive style, this disciple of traditional country music is one of the youngest members of the Grand Ole Opry.

Fri., Sept. 11
All Hands On Deck!

From Roadshow to Radio Broadcast, tight harmonies, on air antics, classic commercials, and rousing comedy gracefully climax to a finish of a lifetime — a full-circle, patriotic salute to America's active duty and veteran members of our Armed Services.

Fri., Oct. 2
The Beach Boys

The Beach Boys changed the musical landscape so profoundly that every pop act since has been in its debt. In addition to founding Beach Boy Mike Love and Beach

Boy-vet Bruce Johnston, Christian Love, Randell Kirsch, Tim Bonhomme, John Cowsill of The Cowsills and Scott Totten round out the band.

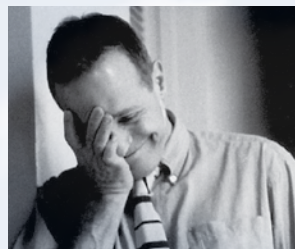

Sat., Oct. 10
Kathy Griffin

Two-time Emmy and Grammy award-winning comedian Kathy Griffin is a towering figure on TV, on tour and in publishing. She breaks through the entertainment clutter with her universally recognized brand of pull-no-punches comedy. Adult content and language.

Sat., Oct. 31
The Rocky Horror Picture Show

Let's do the Time Warp again! The 1975 interactive cult classic movie starring Barry Bostwick, Susan Sarandon, and Tim Curry is a satirical tribute to science fiction and horror B movies of the late 1930s through the early '70s.

Mon., Nov. 2
David Sedaris*

With sardonic wit and incisive social critiques, David Sedaris has become one of America's pre-eminent humor writers. The great skill with which he slices through cultural euphemisms and political correctness proves that Sedaris is a master of satire and one of the most observant writers addressing the human condition today.

Sun., Nov 15
Romeo & Juliet

A play becomes 'classical' because we recognize that after a time it transcends the original culture it was created for. It retains the power to provoke the central question of what it means to be human. Dedicated to the classics, Aquila Theatre feels a responsibility to acknowledge and explore newfound classical works.

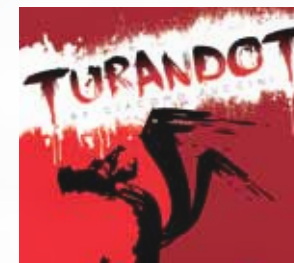

Fri., Dec. 4
Chasing Shadows

Warren Miller's latest film follows top athletes as they pursue turns on the mountains of our dreams: from Utah's Wasatch to the mighty Himalaya. Warren Miller once said, "A pair of skis are the ultimate transportation to freedom," and this year, we're chasing storms, snow, lines, and the freedom that they grant us. Winter starts with Warren Miller.

Thurs., Dec. 10
Darlene Love Christmas

The New York Times raves: "Darlene Love's thunderbolt voice is as embedded in the history of rock and roll as Eric Clapton's guitar or Bob Dylan's lyrics." Inducted into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame, Darlene Love captivates audiences worldwide with her warm, gracious stage presence and sensational performances.

Sat., Feb. 27
Turandot*

Puccini's final masterpiece, set in ancient China, is a spine-chilling tale that swirls around Turandot, an icy-hearted princess whose epic cruelty masks her fear of love, and Calaf, an unknown prince willing to die for a chance to claim her hand.

Wed., March 2
Garrison Keillor

One of America's most beloved radio hosts and acclaimed humorists, Garrison Keillor, host of National Public Radio's Prairie Home Companion, has four million listeners on more than 600 public radio stations coast to coast and beyond.

Sat., April 9
Big Bad Voodoo Daddy

Since their arrival on the music scene in 1993 in a legendary residency at LA's Derby nightclub, Big Bad Voodoo Daddy, named famously after an autograph by blues legend Albert Collins, has sold millions of records while their music has appeared in hundreds of movies and television shows.

Marilyn: Forever Blonde

Set during a 1962 photo shoot, Marilyn Monroe has lost a little of the girlish charm that made her Hollywood's biggest star.

Tired of the label "sex symbol," Marilyn longs to be respected for her talent and loved for who she really is rather than the character she created for the silver screen. She wonders what it would be like to do it all over again.
