Gabriel Royal & Supaman

Fri., March 22, 12:30 pm Recommended for grades 6-12+

Music unites. Oklahoma-born, Brooklyn-based singer-songwriter cellist Gabriel Royal plays his "grown up lullabies" in the subway stations of New York City. That's where he found his lawyer, his manager, his cello and where he continues to find a genuine connection with his inspiration: the commuters of New York. Influenced by Stevie Wonder's groove and contemporary artist John Legend, Gabriel's trademark sound is all his own.

As a member of the "Apsaalooke Nation," Supaman makes his home in Montana. "Supaman" hardly describes the person who is Christian Takes Gun Parrish, a humble Native American dancer and hip hop artist who has dedicated his life to empowering youth and educating listeners with a message of hope through culture and music. His three self-produced projects have all received national recognition and awards including the 2011 North American Indigenous Image Award for outstanding hip hop album.

2018-19 Student Matinee Series

Me...Jane

Thurs., March 28, 9:30 am & 12:30 pm

Before she was a renowned humanitarian, conservationist, and animal activist, Dr. Jane Goodall was a little girl with a very special toy chimpanzee named Jubilee. Together, Jane and Jubilee went on outdoor adventures and observed all the miracles of nature around them. In this brand new musical adaptation, join young Jane and her special friend as they learn about the world around them and the importance of protecting all living species. With anecdotes taken directly from Jane Goodall's autobiography, this adaptation makes this very true story accessible for the very young—and young at heart.

Charlotte's Web

Fri., April 5, 9:30 am & 12:30 pm
Recommended for grades K-4

Theatreworks USA's production of Charlotte's Web, a play by Joseph Robinette with incidental music by Jeffrey Lunden, is based on E.B. White's loving story of the friendship between a pig named Wilbur and a little gray spider named Charlotte. Wilbur has a problem: how to avoid winding up as pork chops! Charlotte, a fine writer and true friend, creates a plan to fool Farmer Zuckerman into believing Wilbur is a prize pig. This treasured tale, featuring madcap and endearing farm animals, explores bravery, selfless love, and the true meaning of friendship.

Education Guides

Reality Fair!

An Educational Program from your local Credit Unions

Valley Credit Union has teamed up with other local credit unions to teach high school students about reality—financial reality. The first Reality Fair took place in April 2018 at Billings Senior High School, where nearly 120 students participated.

What is Reality Fair?

Each student is assigned a job with a certain income. The first order of business is to determine 10% of that income to put in the "savings" column. Next, students go booth-to-booth selecting or being given different expenses and "bills" by a local business. (childcare provider, insurance agent, car salesman, real estate agent, cell phone representative, etc.) In addition, students randomly receive cards, either for an extra expense like getting a flat tire or for a bonus like receiving a bonus at work. The goal of Reality fair is to illustrate monthly budgeting and the real cost of living.

Reality Fair is expanding to more area high schools in the 2018-19 school year!

Students are opening their eyes to credit unions at the first Reality Fair.
